

Campus Compact
New Jersey

Community Engaged Scholars

Roundtable Dialogue Series for Faculty

Drew University
May 7th

11am – 1:30pm

Free Registration
Open to all

Ehinger Center,
Crawford Hall
36 Madison Ave.
Madison, NJ 07940

Please click Reply
to RSVP or e-mail
njcc@stockton.edu
By May 2, 2014

Space is limited

Lunch provided.

Facilitator: Dr. Saul Petersen, Executive Director, NJCC

Objectives:

1. Develop clarity of the evolution of work as engaged scholars.
2. Interact with a statewide network of community engaged scholars.
3. NJCC database development of community engaged scholars with the view of building legitimacy and understanding of these community issue-oriented forms of scholarship.

Agenda

Faculty Presentations

Arts Power Collaboration as Engaged Scholarship: a Partnership between Drew University and the Marion A. Bolden Center

Lisa S. Brenner, Associate Professor of Theatre Arts, and Diamond Wynn, graduating senior, Theatre Major (teaching assistant), Drew University

Building Opportunities for Hispanic Families with Morristown Neighborhood House

Elise DuBord, Assistant Professor of Spanish, Drew University

Discussions

◆ Table Topics 1:

- ◇ Co-creation of ongoing goals between faculty and community members
- ◇ Significant contributions to academic disciplines and community issues

◆ Table Topics 2:

- ◇ Dissemination of new knowledge to appropriate audiences and format
- ◇ Ongoing assessment of CES by faculty and involved community members

◆ Large Group Discussion

- ◇ Building the movement of community-engaged teaching and scholarship in New Jersey